

ONWARD
HAWAII
F E L L O W S

Cohort 1
Program Recap

2025-2026

Leaders shaping the future of Hawaii.

TONY BUTINDARO
Executive Director, Kamaaina
Hale Apartments

DENISE DELLA-SABAS
Director of Business
Development & Community
Partnerships, Waianae Coast
Comprehensive Health Center

MATTHEW LAM
Director of System Finance
Center of Excellence, The Queen's Health Systems

BIANCA MORDASINI
Senior Director of Alumni and
External Relations, Shidler
College of Business

SEIICHI NAGAI
Founder & CEO, CivicNexus

BRIANNE YAMADA NITAHARA
Manager, Joint Use
Infrastructure, Hawaiian Electric
Company

ALY WEE
Owner & Hotel Consultant, Aly
Wee Consulting

NATHAN YANG
Partner, Cades Schutte LLP

At Honolulu Hale, the Fellows met with Mayor Rick Blangiardi, Sherry Menor (Chamber of Commerce Hawaii's President & CEO), and Unyong Nakata (Founder & Principal of Nakata Advisory).

Unyong facilitated a roundtable conversation with Sherry and Mayor Rick about everyone needing to play a role in making our community better, leading with courage and conviction, and staying true to our values.

Senator Glenn Wakai (Vice Chair of the Senate Committee on Economic Development & Tourism) and Representative Greggor Ilagan (Chair of the House Committee on Economic Development & Technology) led a tour of Capitol.

Senator Wakai and Representative Ilagan also discussed the legislative process, what it takes to become an elected official, and how young professionals can show leadership.

SESSION SPEAKERS

RICK BLANGIARDI

Mayor, City & County of Honolulu

Prior to going into politics, Mayor Blangiardi spent 40 years in broadcasting, holding leadership positions at television stations in Seattle, New York, San Francisco, St. Louis, Los Angeles, and Hawaii.

GLENN WAKAI

State Senator, Senate District 15

Senator Wakai is the Chair of the Senate Committee on Energy & Intergovernmental Affairs and the Vice Chair of the Senate Committee on Economic Development & Tourism.

GREGGOR ILAGAN

State Representative, House District 4

Representative Ilagan is currently the Chair of the House Committee on Economic Development & Technology. He previously served as a Councilmember for the County of Hawaii.

SHERRY MENOR

President & CEO, Chamber of Commerce Hawaii

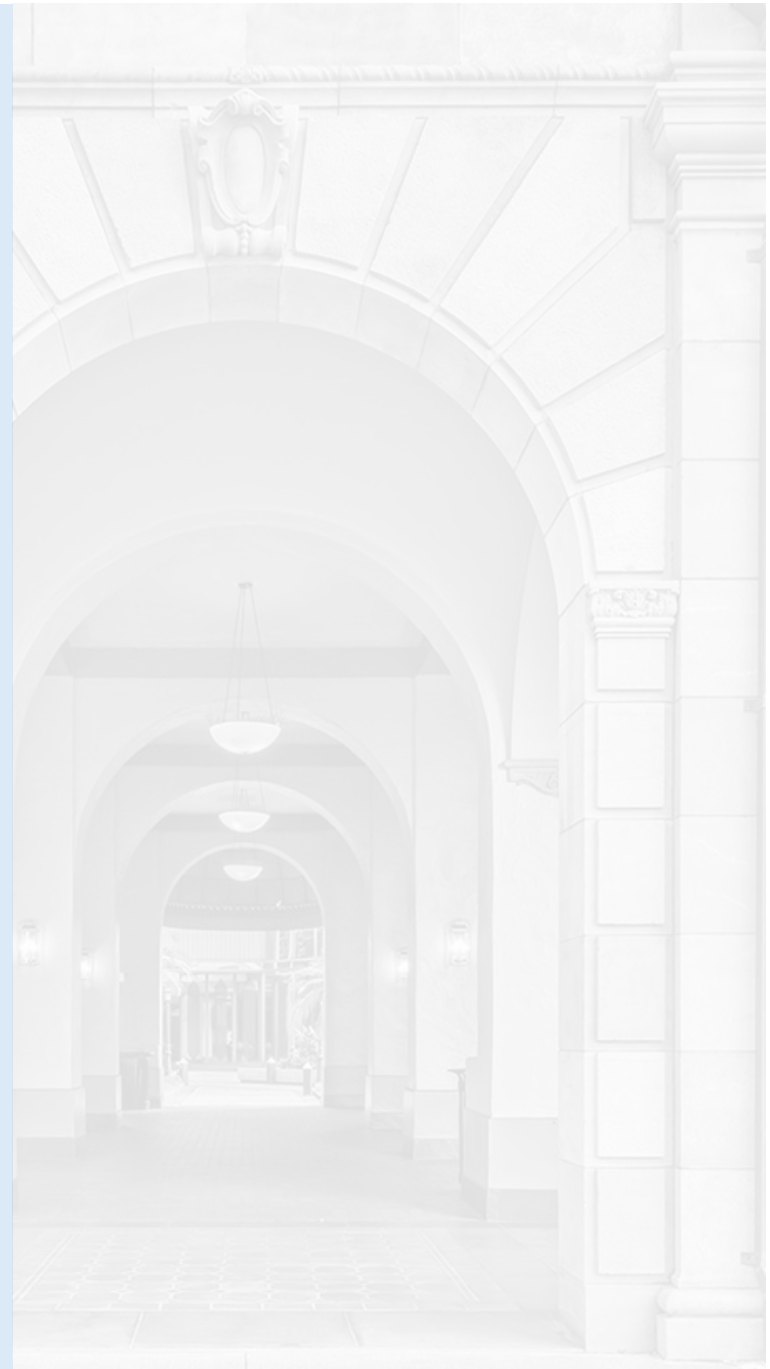

Sherry is the youngest and first female president of the Chamber. She previously worked for Sony Corporation, Sony Entertainment, Estee Lauder Company, Elton John Productions, and 60 Minutes.

UNYONG NAKATA

Founder and Principal, Nakata Advisory, LLC

Unyong specializes in driving sustainable growth and enterprise strength through problem-solving and strategic partnerships. She serves on numerous nonprofit boards.

Gathered in a construction portable, Tracy Tonaki (D.R. Horton's Hawaii Division President) presented on the regulatory challenges the company faced when developing Hoopili in East Kapolei.

Tracy and Lee Tokuhara (D.R. Horton's Director of Communications & Community Relations) led a bus tour of Hoopili, and the Fellows were able to see a model unit.

Representative Luke Evslin (Chair of the House Committee on Housing), Sterling Higa (Chair of the Hawaii Community Development Authority), and Connie Mitchell (Executive Director of The Institute for Human Services) joined in.

Representative Evslin and Sterling discussed the efforts of legislators and policymakers to make housing more affordable.

SESSION SPEAKERS

TRACY TONAKI

Hawaii Division President, D.R. Horton

Tracy is passionate about building homes for Hawaii's families. Her company, D.R. Horton, is working on building nearly 12,000 housing units in the Hoopili community.

LUKE EVSLIN

State Representative, House District 16

Representative Evslin is the chair of the House Committee on Housing. He previously served on the Kauai County Council and co-founded a Kailua based outrigger canoe manufacturing company

STERLING HIGA

Chair, Hawaii Community Development Authority

Sterling is a co-founder and former executive director of Housing Hawaii's Future. He now oversees development of Kakaako, Kalaeloa, and Heeiea.

CONNIE MITCHELL

Executive Director, The Institute for Human Services

Connie leads the state's largest nonprofit focused on ending and preventing homelessness. IHS offers shelters and other wrap around services.

ANGIE KNIGHT

Community Relations Manager, The Institute for Human Services

Angie is a spokesperson for IHS and plans community events. She also serves on the Honolulu Neighborhood Commission

TOPIC DEVELOPMENT MENTORS

CHRISTINE CAMP

President & CEO, Avalon Development

Christine is a well-regarded real estate developer in Hawaii. Her company has worked on multiple affordable housing projects and the redevelopment of Downtown Honolulu.

Fellows: Bianca Mordasini & Denise Della-Sabas

NANI MEDEIROS

Vice President, Commercial & Developer Sales, Title Guaranty

Nani was previously appointed by Governor Josh Green as the state's Chief Housing Officer and led housing-related nonprofits.

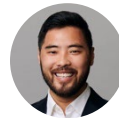

Fellows: Aly Wee & Nate Yang

TONY MIZUNO

Executive Vice President of Commercial Markets, American Savings Bank

At ASB, Tony has worked alongside many residential real estate developers to build affordable housing in Hawaii.

Fellows: Seiichi Nagai & Tony Butindaro

LEE WANG

Executive Director, Housing Hawaii's Future

Lee leads youth-driven advocacy and education efforts to ensure Hawaii's next generation can afford to live and thrive at home. He is also a realtor.

Fellows: Brianne Yamada Nitahara & Matthew Lam

At Ko Hana Rum in Kunia Camp, founder Jason Brand discussed how he transitioned from an investment banker to an entrepreneur and explained what it takes for a start-up to excel.

Jason provided the Fellows a tour of Ko Hana Rum's distillery and presented on the company's values, including using locally grown ingredients and taking care of their employees.

The Fellows also visited the Wahiawa Value-Added Product Development Center (WVAPDC) to learn about a facility dedicated toward helping local food-based entrepreneurs start up and scale.

WVAPDC champions, Senator Donovan Dela Cruz and DBEDT Deputy Director Dane Wicker, along with Hawaii FoundHer Program Director Darien Siguenza, spoke about needed improvements in the entrepreneurial ecosystem.

SESSION SPEAKERS

JASON BRAND

Co-Founder, Ko Hana Rum

Retiring from investment banking, Jason set down roots in Hawaii and invested in sustainable farming ventures, aquaculture, alcohol, digital media, digital payments, programing and film productions in the state.

DONOVAN DELA CRUZ

State Senator, Senate District 17

Senator Dela Cruz is the chair of the Senate Committee on Ways & Means, a key committee responsible for reviewing the state budget. He also owns Kilani Brew Handcrafted Tea.

DANE WICKER

Deputy Director, Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism

Drawing insight from his own entrepreneurship experiences, Dane leads statewide initiatives to diversify Hawai'i's economy.

DARIEN SIGUENZA

Program Manager at Hawaii FoundHer Accelerator

In her current role, Darien focuses on supporting Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, and Asian women entrepreneurs.

TOPIC DEVELOPMENT MENTORS

SANDRA FUJIYAMA

Executive Director, Pacific Asian Center For Entrepreneurship

Sandra leads UH's innovation and entrepreneurship efforts, including strengthening ties with community stakeholders.

Fellow: Tony Butindaro

MELI JAMES

Co-Founder, Mana Up

Meli previously lived in Silicon Valley for more than 10 years where she co-founded and contributed to numerous startups. She returned home to help fellow entrepreneurs.

Fellows: Nate Yang & Seiichi Nagai

IAN KITAJIMA

President, Pacific International Center for High Technology Research

Previously, Ian was the director of corporate development and "technology sherpa" at Oceanit.

Fellows: Brianne Yamada Nitahara & Matthew Lam

TRUNG LAM

Executive Director & CEO, Hawaii Technology Development Corporation

Trung has more than 20 years of leadership experience and is committed to advancing technology in Hawaii.

Fellow: Bianca Mordasini

LORI TERANISHI

Founder & CEO, iQ 360

Lori leads an award-winning strategic communications company that counsels global corporations, startups, nonprofits and agencies.

Fellows: Aly Wee & Denise Della-Sabas

The Fellows visited the headquarters of Tori Richard, Ltd. in Kalihi and learned about Hale Tori's iconic brands, including Kahala. Mike Osario (SVP of Sales & Marketing) discussed the process of taking artwork and turning into apparel.

Mike, Cassie Louie (Kahala Brand Manager), and Michelle Hamachi (Head of Manufacturing) provided an overview of supply chain challenges and Tori Richard's efforts to keep the sewing trade's workforce strong in Hawaii.

At the Hawaiian Host Production Facility in Iwilei, Ed Schultz (CEO) and Bill Disario (COO) shared the chocolate and macadamia nut producer's values and commitment to keep production in Hawaii.

Chris Rabago (Senior Director of Manufacturing) and Michael Munoz (Senior Engineering Manager) showed the Fellows around the facility, which incorporates advanced robotic technology, while still relying on manual labor.

SESSION SPEAKERS

MICHELLE HAMACHI

Head of Production, Kahala

Michelle oversees Hawaii-based production of Tori Richard and Kahala brands. Previously, she served in production and e-commerce roles with always a.line Hawaii and In4mation.

MIKE OSORIO

SVP of Sales & Marketing, Tori Richard, Ltd.

Mike leads sales of Tori Richard and Kahala Sportswear products in 18 retail stores, two e-commerce sites, and hundreds of wholesale accounts throughout the U.S. and in several international markets.

ED SCHULTZ

President & CEO, Hawaiian Host Group

Ed is the president and CEO of HHG, a leading agricultural, manufacturing, and consumer goods company in Hawaii. Previously, he was the president and owner of Honolulu Coffee Company.

BILL DISARIO

COO, Hawaiian Host Group

Bill has over 30 years of experience in manufacturing, logistics, and supply chain operations across consumer packaged goods and agricultural industries. He previously worked at Dean Foods and Nestle.

CHRIS RABAGO

Senior Director of Manufacturing, Hawaiian Host Group

Chris oversees manufacturing at HHG. He is also the founder of Kona Roasted Coffee and has a wealth of operations experience with food processing facilities.

TOPIC DEVELOPMENT MENTORS

ASHTEN AKEMOTO

Co-Founder & Chief Engineer, Normal Robotics

Ashten previously worked at Astrobotic and NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory. Now, he leads a growing startup, which is developing energy-efficient modular heat pumps.

Fellows: Seiichi Nagai & Nate Yang

CHRIS BAILEY

Manager, Wahiawā Value-Added Product Development Center

Chris manages a 33,000 sq ft manufacturing and teaching facility that includes equipment for food processing and packaging.

Fellows: Brianne Yamada Nitahara & Tony Butindaro

PATRICK SULLIVAN

Founder & CEO, Oceanit

Patrick is a scientist, engineer, entrepreneur, businessman, and author. At Oceanit, he leads a "mind-to-market" company that produces technology from homegrown research and development.

Fellows: Bianca Mordasini & Matt Lam

HISAE UKI

VP of Operations, Sun Noodle

Hisae works alongside her brother to carry on her family's legacy of Sun Noodle. Under her leadership, Sun Noodle has expanded operations to the Continental U.S. and Europe.

Fellows: Aly Wee & Bianca Mordasini

At the OUTRIGGER Waikiki Paradise Hotel, Kiana Beimes (General Manager), Jimmy Tokioka (DBEDT Director), and Lindsey Sanborn (Branch Manager, Hawaii Tourism Authority) discussed trends in the tourism industry.

Kiana showed the Fellows around her hotel property, explained how her team is paying tribute to the legacy of Princess Kaiulani, and spoke about how the hotel serves visiting customers.

At Hawaiian Airlines' headquarters, Diana Rakow (CEO), Jim Landers (Head of Operations), Daniel Chun (Managing Director), and Jacob Aki (Sr. Public Affairs Manager) spoke to the Fellows about the company's strategy and values.

The Fellows toured Hawaiian Airlines' maintenance hangar and learned about what goes into keeping airplanes safe. The Fellows also visited the Systems Operations Control Center and saw FAA dispatchers at work.

SESSION SPEAKERS

KIANA BEIMES

OUTRIGGER Waikī Paradise Hotel General Manager

Kiana is responsible for operations, guest satisfaction, and revenue for OUTRIGGER Waikī Paradise Hotel. She oversaw the recent renovation of the hotel.

JAMES TOKIOKA

Director, Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism

Director Tokioka leads the state agency responsible for tourism and economic development. He previously was the Deputy Director for the DOT's Airport Division.

LINDSEY SANBORN

Brand Manager, Hawaii Tourism Authority

Filling in for Interim President & CEO Caroline Anderson, Lindsey focuses on destination management at the state agency responsible for managing Hawaii's brand.

DIANA RAKOW

CEO, Hawaiian Airlines

Diana is responsible for the performance and advancement of the Hawaiian Airlines brand and Alaska Air Group's business in Hawaii, including Honolulu, which is the company's second largest hub.

JIM LANDERS

Head of Hawaii Operations, Hawaiian Airlines and Alaska Airlines

Jim is responsible for safety and operational performance of Hawaiian Airlines, while supporting the combined company's operations in the islands.

TOPIC DEVELOPMENT MENTORS

DANIEL CHUN

Managing Director of Hawaii Public Affairs and Sales, Hawaiian Airlines and Alaska Airlines

Daniel oversees Hawaiian Airlines and Alaska Airlines' community and cultural relations, government affairs and sales teams.

Fellows: Bianca Mordasini & Denise Della-Sabas

JERRY GIBSON

President, Hawaii Hotel Alliance

Jerry has 44 years of hospitality experience. He has helped to develop some of the most iconic hotels in Hawaii and lends his time and expertise to a dozen industry and community boards.

Fellows: Aly Wee & Nate Yang

CARMINE IOMMAZZO

Vice President of Hospitality, MacNaughton Hospitality

Carmine oversees the management of three hotels in Waikiki owned by MacNaughton Group -- Hotel Renew, Lotus Honolulu at Diamond Head Hotel and Waikiki Malia.

Fellows: Seiichi Nagai & Tony Butindaro

KAREN WATARU NAKAOKA

Sr. Director, Member & Community Engagement, Hawaii Visitors & Convention Bureau

Karen is the Senior Director, Member and Community Engagement at the state's largest tourism member-based organization. She is an expert in stakeholder collaboration and regenerative tourism.

Fellows: Brianne Yamada Nitahara & Matthew Lam

Fourth-generation farmers Kylie Matsuda-Lum and Judah Lum provided an overview of the historical foundation of Kahuku Farms and their strategic decision to incorporate tours and offer value-added products.

The Fellows toured Kahuku Farms, observing the different varieties of fruits and vegetables, including acai, cacao, apple banana, papaya, avocado, kalo, and eggplant, and learned about the work that goes into farming.

At Kualoa Ranch, the Fellows met with Taylor Kellerman (Kualoa's Director of Diversified Agriculture and Land Stewardship) and Jesse Cooke (Ulupono Initiative's Vice President of Investments and Analytics).

Taylor and Jesse spoke about the challenges of raising livestock and farming in Hawaii, and they answered the Fellows' questions about how farms, big and small, can be successful in Hawaii.

SESSION SPEAKERS

JUDAH LUM

Director of Operations, Kahuku Farms

Judah oversees the gardens and tour department of Kahuku Farms. He has overseen the creation of small-batch, hand-crafted products, using fruits that would have been wasted due to scarring.

KYLIE MATSUDA-LUM

Managing Director, Kahuku Farms

A fourth-generation farmer, Kylie continues her family's farming business, growing apple bananas, papayas, long eggplants, and dryland taro, and expanding into education, agri-tourism, and value-added products.

JESSE COOKE

Vice President, Investments & Analytics

Jesse provides financial and technical due-diligence for investment decisions on various projects. His main focus has been to support organizations working to increase local food production in the islands.

TAYLOR KELLERMAN

Director of Diversified Agriculture and Land Stewardship, Kualoa Ranch

Taylor oversees over 50 agricultural staff to produce five different types of animal protein and a wide variety of fruits, vegetables, tropical flowers, and value-added products.

TOPIC DEVELOPMENT MENTORS

LEE COLBURN

Local Cacao Farmer

After careers in the Army and Kaiser Permanente, Lee joined his wife's cacao and ti farm in Waiahole. He is deeply committed to supporting and preserving Hawaii agriculture.

Fellows: Tony Butindaro & Nate Yang

BRIAN MIYAMOTO

Executive Director, Hawaii Farm Bureau

Brian advocates for Hawaii's farmers and ranchers, focusing on local food security and high production costs, and promoting local agriculture through initiatives like farm-to-school and food hubs.

Fellows: Matthew Lam & Bianca Mordasini

KELVIN SHIGEMURA

Vice President of Sales, Freshpoint Hawaii

Kelvin is the vice president of sales at Armstrong Produce, Hawaii's leading fresh fruit and vegetable wholesaler and distributor, serving restaurants, hotels, grocery stores, and more.

Fellows: Seiichi Nagai & Brianne Yamada Nitahara

DENISE YAMAGUCHI

Executive Director, Hawaii Agricultural Foundation;
Founder & CEO, Hawaii Food & Wine Festival

Denise is a business development consultant providing organizations with fund development, marketing, government affairs, public relations and community relations strategies and solutions.

Fellows: Aly Wee & Denise Della-Sabas

Jennifer Lim and Morgan Cobb (Marketing and Communications managers) provided an overview of Young Brothers, the shipping industry, and the regulatory environment.

Tugboat master Chris Kojima and Port Captain Mikkel Roen provided a tour of the Kapena Bob Purdy, a 7-crewmember tugboat, and detailed what it's like to deliver important cargo between the Hawaiian Islands.

The Fellows visited the UH Marine Center and learned about commercial fishing and ocean-based scientific research, and how vessel and port maintenance, logistics, and workforce challenges impact objectives.

Paul Mospens (Marine Operations Superintendent) and Craig Nosse (Director of Marine Technical Services) provided a tour of the UH Marine Center's vessels, labs, and machine shop.

SESSION SPEAKERS

JENNIFER LIM & MORGAN COBBS

Marketing and Communications, Young Brothers

Jennifer and Morgan manage the interisland shipping company's external affairs, including marketing, public relations, and government affairs.

CHRIS KOJIMA

Tugboat Master, Young Brothers

Chris captains the Kapena Bob Purdy, one of Young Brothers' tugboats. He manages a crew of six other mariners to transport container barges between the Hawaiian Islands.

MIK ROER

Port Captain, Young Brothers

Mik oversees marine operations, including directing tug and barge crews, ensuring safety/regulatory compliance, managing vessel schedules, and handling personnel matters like training and crewing.

PAUL MOSPENS

Marine Operations Superintendent, University of Hawaii Marine Center

Paul manages the day-to-day operations of the UH Marine Center and its research vessels, specifically the R/V Kilo Moana. He previously sailed for Matson.

CRAIG NOSSE

Director of Marine Technical Services, University of Hawaii Marine Center

Craig oversees scientific equipment and technical personnel and plans scientific objectives for research expeditions.

TOPIC DEVELOPMENT MENTORS

MATT GUARD

President, McCabe Hamilton Renny Co.

As president, Matt oversees Hawaii's oldest stevedore and terminal operation company. He is very involved in the maritime industry, serving on numerous boards.

Fellows: Nate Yang & Seiichi Nagai

DEAN KAPOI

Vice President of Operations, Matson Terminals

Dean is responsible for the day-to-day operations of Matson's Hawaii terminals, playing a key role in ensuring efficient and effective port and terminal services. Previously, he worked at Young Brothers.

Fellows: Denise Della-Sabas & Brianne Yamada Nitahara

KYLE MORGAN

Marine Coordinator, Sea Engineering

Kyle is a maritime operations and logistics professional and is responsible for all of Sea Engineering's vessel operations for the Dry Dock 5 renovation project and Wave Energy Test Site.

Fellows: Aly Wee & Tony Butindaro

MICHAEL MACDONALD

Vice President, American Marine Corporation

Michael oversees tug and barge operation in Hawaii for American Marine Company. Previously, he served as the Manager of Regional Operations for Young Brothers.

Fellows: Bianca Mordasini & Matthew Lam